On behalf of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the intercession of Mary Immaculate, humbly prostrate before your Majesty, O Almighty God, we beseech you to please send it for Saint Michel save us in our distress.

You deign to remember, Lord, that in the painful circumstances of our history, you have made the instrument of thy mercies towards us. We can not forget it. And you, O Saint Michael, Prince of the heavenly hosts, come to us. We urge you with all our hearts! You are the Guardian Angel of the Church and of France, it was you who inspired and supported Joan of Arc in her liberating mission. Come again to our rescue and save us! God has entrusted you with souls, redeemed by the Saviour, should be admitted to the happiness of Heaven. So we are doing on the sublime mission which the Lord has instructed you.

We place all our spiritual interests, our souls, our families, our parishes, the whole of France, under your powerful protection. We have firm hope, you will not let die the people entrusted to you!

It seems certain, in fact, that originally dates back to a pious Portuguese named Antonia Astonac, which would have received from St. Michael the assurance that anyone would honor by reciting nine salutations corresponding to the nine choirs Angels would be accompanied to the Holy Table with a procession of nine angels caught in each of the nine choirs. Furthermore, one who daily recite the nine salutations, Archangel promised the special assistance during life and after death, deliverance from the flames of Purgatory, for himself and for his parents.

With a rosary blessed, specially designed, after kissing the medal piously:

"O God, help me to thinking; Lord, make haste to help me.

Let them be ashamed, and be put to shame those who seek my soul.

Let them be turned back, and that confusion that wish me evil.

Let them return immediately, blushing, those who say to me: Triumph, triumph!

But they are engaged in transport of joy and gladness they exult all who seek you, and they say continually, Let the Lord be glorified, those who love your salvation.

For I am poor and needy; God, help me.

It is you who are my help and my deliverer; Lord, do not delay.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning and now and ever and ever and ever. So be it."

Then, leaving the four grains that follow the coin, recite a Pater on the coarse and three Ave on small grains for greeting each Choir of Angels.
